Peg Ornaments | Puffin

WHAT YOU'LL NEED

- Wooden peg doll body (ours is 3½ inches tall)
- Black, white, and orange acrylic paint
- Black, blue, and orange felt
- Hot glue or tacky glue
- Alligator clips (in the jewelry section of craft stores)

WHAT TO DO

1. Paint the puffin's body black with a white face and tummy; let dry.
2. Using the templates, cut the wings, beak, and hat pieces out of felt. Fold the beak as shown and glue in place. Fold the beanie into a cone with the pompom inside and glue in place, then add the trim. Glue the wings in place.
3. Paint the eyes, cheeks, and beak accents onto the puffin.
4. Glue an alligator clip to the bottom, leaving enough space beyond the ornament to pinch the handle.

Peg Ornaments | Narwhal

WHAT YOU'LL NEED

- Wooden-peg doll body (ours is 3½ inches tall)
- Blue, white, and black acrylic paint
- Blue felt
- Hot glue or tacky glue
- White and red pipe cleaners
- Alligator clip (in the jewelry section of craft stores)

WHAT TO DO

1. Paint the body blue with a white tummy; let dry. Add the eyes and mouth; let dry.
2. Using the templates, cut the fins and tail out of blue felt; glue to the body as shown. To make the tail flip up, glue it to the base, then add a dab of glue to the middle of the tail and attach it to the back.
3. Cut a 2½-inch white pipe cleaner, fold one end down ¼ inch, and glue to the head. Trim the chenille to taper it into a point. For the scarf, wrap a 5-inch red pipe cleaner around the neck, twist it in place and curve the ends up.
4. Glue an alligator clip to the bottom, leaving enough space beyond the ornament to pinch the handle.
